

Conflict of interest EMAS board members and advisors

Conflicts of interest (COI) arise where there is a divergence between an individual's responsibilities to the EMAS Board and their other interests, such that an individual's motives might be compromised, or perceived to be compromised.

Board members and advisors are required to disclose any COI.

COIs include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. All relevant financial relationships with commercial interests (entities producing, marketing, re-selling, or distributing goods or services) in any amount, as well as the nature of the relationship (personal or immediate family) within the past 5 years, e.g.:

Grant/research support – yes, but no relation with EMAS (director H2020 A4L Actions, A4L Bridges)

Consultancies - yes

Membership of speakers' bureau
– yes (Viphor Pharma, Asstelas)

Patent ownership – yes, but no
financial interest

Membership of the board of directors – no

Stock shareholding - no

Other financial support – public and private medical activities

2. Any non-financial relationships/affiliations relevant to EMAS
Member of the Board Romanian Medical Menopause Association AMMR
Member SRUOG, ISUOG, ASUM, and other professional societies and associations without any financial implications
